In this Issue

Memorials   Floral Tribute   Current Developments   Upcoming Events

Memorials Our new brochure is now available and includes a wide range of memorials at competitive prices.

Floral Tribute Area Since the establishment of our new canopy, we have received an excellent response. The area is an attractive location for the display of many floral tributes and has proved very popular with families and Funeral Directors.

Staff Update We are delighted to welcome Mark Evans as a Cremator Technician. Mark previously worked for a local funeral directors for over 10 years and brings a wealth of experience to the crematorium. He has also passed his Cremator Operator Licence.

Current Developments

Refurbishment of waiting room area is now complete and features new furniture with a modern appearance. A refurbishment of the Book of Remembrance Room will begin shortly and will include rest room facilities and a Book of Remembrance area.

We have many exciting developments for our Memorial Gardens and will be announcing our plans in the near future.

Our Services

Music
Webcasts
DVD recordings

Music

We will endeavour to supply any items of music required for a funeral service provided they are currently commercially available. We have the Wesley Media system at the crematorium and they have access to a huge library of recordings and an extensive knowledge of all types of music.

Webcasts

We also offer a webcast facility, for a nominal fee, and easy to follow guidelines. This is ordered via Wesley Media up to 48 hours prior to the service and may be viewed with permission for a period of up to seven days after the service.

DVD Recordings

We can also provide a DVD recording of the service, for a nominal fee, which is an excellent service for bereaved families unable to attend the service on the day. This is also provided by Wesley Media and may be ordered up to 24 hours prior to the service.
