Memorials

Our new brochure is now available and includes a wide range of memorials at competitive prices.

Floral Tribute Area

We have received an excellent response with the establishment of our new canopy. The area is an attractive location for the display of many floral tributes and has proved very popular with families and Funeral Directors.

Staff News

We are pleased to welcome Mark Evans as Cremator Technician. Mark previously worked for a local Funeral Director for over 10 years and brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the crematorium. He has also passed his Cremator Operator Licence.

Current Developments

The refurbishment of the waiting room is now complete and features a fresh décor and new furniture giving a light, modern appearance.

A refurbishment of the Book of Remembrance Room will begin shortly and will include rest room facilities and a Book of Remembrance area.

We have many exciting developments for our Memorial Gardens and will be announcing our plans in the near future.

DVD recordings

Music

We will endeavour to supply any items of music required for a funeral service provided they are commercially available. Wesley Media provide this facility at the crematorium and they have access to a huge library of recordings and an extensive knowledge of all types of music.

Webcasts

We also offer a webcast facility, for a nominal fee, and easy to follow guidelines. This is ordered via Wesley Media up to 48 hours prior to the service and may be viewed with permission for a period of up to seven days after the service.

DVD Recordings

We offer a DVD recording of the service for a nominal fee which is an excellent service for families unable to attend on the day. This is a unique and personal tribute provided Wesley Media and may be ordered up to 24 hours prior to the service.
